WOODWARD COUNTY

Northwest Oklahoma

WOODWARD

Originally home to Kiowa, Cheyenne, Comanche & Arapahoe tribes, Woodward was established in 1887, when the railroad arrived, and became a stop along the Great Western Cattle Trail. The depot shipped thousands of cattle East and Woodward got a reputation as a rough-and-tumble frontier town. Located in the western quadrant of the Cherokee Outlet, the town began six years before the outlet was officially opened to non-Indian settlers. It operated as a provisioning point for Fort Supply. The Fort Supply Historic Site was home to the original 19th Century Army camp where General George Custer based his troops during the U.S. Government's campaign against the Plains Indians. In November 1956, Woodward began a new adventure - oil and gas production; McCormick #1 became the country's discovery gas well.

Boiling Springs State Park, a natural 'oasis on the plains' was one of the original seven State Parks of the 1930's. The park is named after the natural 'boiling' spring that still flows and the golf course provides a challenging playing experience.

Woodward showcases the enduring pioneer spirit with genuine hometown hospitality. Plains Indians & Pioneers Museum provides visitors with a glimpse of the Wild West history, tales of Temple Houston, and the colorful characters that settled this region. Crystal Beach Park includes a spring fed lake stocked with fish, aquatic center, indoor & outdoor sports facilities, and more. The outdoor coliseum is home to the Elk's Rodeo, which began in 1929. During the holidays, the park turns into "Crystal Christmas" a drive-thru light show. Woodward has a variety of hotels with a range of amenities and facilities. The local restaurants offer a variety of dining options and there are retail shops to explore.

WAYNOKA

Waynoka is known as the Little City by the Sand. People from all over the USA and many foreign countries come to play in our sandbox! Little Sahara State Park is nearly 2,000 acres of living sand dunes. It is among the most popular sand dune parks in the nation, open 24 hours a day, seven days a week. Camping has been made easier with online reservations at the park. Find camping information for Little Sahara State Park at travelok.com. There are multiple private campgrounds located adjacent to the park and in Waynoka, as well as a motel and weekend rentals for those who want more comfort than camping allows. You can ride your ATV or ORV on our trail to town and park on the street in front of your favorite store or eating establishment, get your fuel, riding accessories, or camping supplies for the weekend; it's all available right in Waynoka.

But wait, we're known for our rattlesnakes, too! The Annual Rattlesnake Roundup happens the first weekend after Easter. During this annual event our town grows by 10-20 times our usual population. Hunters bring in the snakes during the weekend and visitors can brave the Den of Death to get a close up view. The butcher shop will be open, and yes, you can taste snake meat. There are carnival rides, food and merchandise vendors line the streets. An area ABATE Chapter hosts a Biker Rodeo on Saturday at our rodeo grounds. Snakes are measured and prizes awarded on Sunday afternoon to complete the weekend. This three day event has something for everyone!

We're also known for the Cimarron River Stampede Rodeo, the oldest ongoing rodeo in the area. Sanctioned by UPRA, KPRA, IPRA & open rodeo associations, this event is held the second weekend in August and attracts some of the best rodeo cowboys and was ranked in 2016 by UPRA at #1 nationally for highest paying added money. Thursday night is kid's night, with special events and activities just for them. You'll enjoy the special performances nightly. Food vendors are on sight at the rodeo grounds with specialties like meatloaf burgers and chicken fry sandwiches. Bringyour appetite and your enthusiasm and enjoy three great nights of rodeo at its finest.

One of our historical treasures, the Depot, stands next to one of America's fastest and busiest rail lines, the BNSF Transcon. The Waynoka Air Rail Museum showcases Waynoka transportation history on the second floor of the Harvey House. Both the Harvey House and Santa Fe Depot are listed on the National Register of Historic Places. Train watching abounds in Waynoka. Just south of Waynoka. a blacktop roads leads out to the countryside where the scenic vistas show off beautiful sun rises and sunsets. It's no wonder that Charles Lindbergh and Amelia Earhart found Waynoka such a charming place to visit!

FUN FACTS

In 1878, the Battle of Turkey Springs was fought approximately ten miles northeast of Freedom. It was the last known encounter between the United States Cavalry and the American Indians in Oklahoma.

Freedom's economy revolves around wheat and beef producers; but salt has been another important industry.

Dacoma has supported five large grain elevators for most of the aventieth century.

Alva was established in 1893 as a land office from the Cherokee Outlet Land Run, the largest of the land rushes in Oklahoma. The town is location on the Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe Railway.

The Cherokee Strip Museum of Alva is located in the former Alva General Hospital. Upon visiting the Museum, you will find many authentic historical items displayed in one of the 40 rooms throughout the building. Local families whose ancestors have settled in Woods County at the time of the 1893 land run are striving to see that history is preserved. The museum has artifacts from the German POW camp stationed in Alva during World War II. An authentic one room school house is located on the museum complex. The newly renovated country church is available for weddings and events.

In 1897, Alva became home to Northwestern Oklahoma State University. The college's main building for a time was the "Castle on the Hill," a huge, fanciful brick building that towered over much of the town. The Castle burned down in 1935, to be replaced by Jesse Dunn Hall, which was dedicated in 1937 by Eleanor Roosevelt.

The Alva Mural Society is proud of the outstanding historical murals, including the storied Castle and dozens of marvelous murals can be found throughout the town. The Runnymede has an interesting history and provides a community room with a full kitchen. The Alva Community Theatre, (ACT 1) offers live entertainment. Alva hosts a First Friday Art Walk each month in the Arts & Shopping District. The Nescatunga Arts Festival is in June and the RACE Big Cruise & Car Show is in September.

One of the highlights of Aline is its traditional Fall Fair dating back to just after WWII. The celebration kicks off Friday evening with cannon firing bowling balls while visitors enjoy homemade cake and ice cream. Saturday morning's parade is led by the motorcycle poker run. Visitors can enjoy soup cooked over an open fire in case iron kettles.

Between Aline and Cleo Springs is a unique attraction that you don't want to miss. At one time there were thousands of sod houses dotting the plains of North America. Marshall McCully's "Soddy", built in 1894, features two rooms constructed from a half acre of thick buffalo grass sod. The inside walls are plastered with alkali clay. A wood floor was added in 1985. Today the museum encloses the original Sod House and a root cellar.

ENIO

The arts and history blend together in Enid, Red Carpet Country's largest city. Home to one of only seven Certified Cultural Districts in Oklahoma.

Enid's walkable Arts and Entertainment District includes the historic downtown square, two square blocks full of boutique and antique shopping, some of Enid's finest cuisine, public art murals & sculptures, and a First Friday event April through October filled with live music, creative artists and themed activities.

The Enid Symphony Orchestra, Oklahoma's longest-running symphony since 1905, lives here, as does the Gaslight Theatre, one of the state's most active community theatres and a free Shakespeare in the Park each summer. Stride Bank Center is the region's top entertainment venue having hosted concerts by music superstars including Alabama, Casting Crowns, Kansas, Mannheim Steamroller, Reba, Willie Nelson, and ZZ Top. Across the street is David Allen Memorial Ballpark, home to the NJCAA Division II World Series and over 270 events per year.

Over 150 year ago, Government Springs Park was known along the historic Chisholm Trail as a popular water stop for cattle. When you see painted hoof prints on Enid's city streets, you are on the Chisholm Trail. Enid was the site of one of four land offices for the Cherokee Strip Land Run on Sept. 16, 1893, the most competitive event in U.S. history when 100,000 land-hungry settlers charged into the Cherokee Outlet for 40,000 plots of land with dreams of claiming their land and start new lives. A visit to the Cherokee Strip Regional Heritage Center reveals a Smithsonian-quality facility that tells the settlers' story in a way that puts you right in the saddle astride your galloping horse toward the Land Run office. You'll also step inside the only remaining original Land Run office from any of Oklahoma's seven land runs.

Not only will you find a natural spring waterfall at Government Springs Park, you'll also find Dillingham Garden, beautiful any time of the year and a prime landing spot for monarch butterflies. For family fun, Leonardo's Children's Museum has a two-story indoor Power Tower, and Adventure Quest has a three-story outdoor playground. Train enthusiasts will love the Railroad Museum of Oklahoma, with over a million pieces of railroad memorabilia and a yard filled with engines, cabooses, dining cars and more to explore. Enid is home to Oklahoma's official Vietnam War Memorial. An 80-percent replica of the Vietnam Wall in Washington, D.C. is on display at Woodring Regional Airport.

Enid offers over 1,200 lodging rooms, over 100 restaurants including more than 50 uniquely-Enid eateries, and an assortment of shopping. VisitEnid.org can help you plan your trip.

Have we gotten a little older? Sure. But our thrill-seeking days aren't over. These days, we get it out of our system on the Little Sahara sanddunes. And Roman Nose State Park? We tear up those trails on our bikes until dusk. On vacation, we like to push our limits... but it sure is nice to unwindin front of the lodge fireplace at nightfall. And then there's Black Mesa State Park. Every time we scale the plateau, we shoot for a record time. And that view from the top? Indescribable. I can't imagine a better place to let loose than an Oklahoma state park. It keeps us young at heart.

PONCA CITY

Ponca City thrives on its rich history, diversity attractions and elegant architecture. In 1914, oll baron E.W. Marland began construction on his first home. The now restored 22 room mansion was designed with ground breaking amenities, including Oklahoma's first indoor swimming pool. Marland's Grand Home showcases his family, 1920's oil empire and Native American artifacts from area tribes. The 101 Ranch Museum is located in the home.

Modeled after the Davanzati Palace in Florence, Italy, the E.W. Marland Estate, a 55 room 43,000 square foot "castle on the prairie," contains a leather-lined elevator, 12 bathrooms, 3 kitchens, 7 fireplaces and an elegant ballroom with a 24-karat gold leaf covered ceiling worth over $2 million. This 1928 home is now listed as a National Historic Landmark. The Marland Oil Company merged with Isaac Blake's Continental Oil & Transportation to become Conoco, a 20th century energy company like no other.

Opening is 1927, the Poncan Theatre enjoyed the "golden era" of cinema. The Poncan is home to a large collection of hand-painted movie posters from the 1920's & 1930's, all original to the theatre.

The two tallest bronze statues in the state of Oklahoma live in Ponca City. The 30-foot "Confident" Ploneer Woman is located in front of the Ploneer Woman Museum, where you can discover stories of Oklahoma's pioneer women. "Confident" was chosen by a vote from 750,000 people from across the USA. The Standing Bear Museum is home of the 22foot Poncan Chief Standing Bear. The museum displays artifacts from the Kaw, Osage, Otoe-Missouria, Pawnee, Ponca and Tonkawa tribes. The annual Standing Bear Pow Wow is held at their permanent arbor each September.

Ponca City hosts many events, such as the Herb Festival, Cruisin' Grand, Cherokee Strip Golf Classic, Fine Arts Festival, BBQ Cook-off, PRCA 101 Wild West Rodeo, Oktoberfest, Holiday Happenings and Festival of Angels.

ENTER THE GRANDEUR - MARLAND ESTATES Palaces On The Prairie - Ponca City

Two Estates - One Extraordinary Legacy - E.W. Marland

Ernest Whitworth Marland came to Ponca City in 1908 looking for oil. Within a dozen years, he had amassed a $100 million fortune, and controlled ten percent of the world's oil reserves. His Grand Home and spectacular Mansion are a legacy to his story of power and position, triumph and tragedy, drama and dreams, aristocracy and the untamed west.
